

PERSONALS

WOULD YOU LIKE TO MEET

A new friend and penpal who is fat positive? I would. Me: lesbian feminist, Pacific Northwest Fat girl (Canadian), 31, who celebrates our big beautifulness, likes to giggle and experience deeply moving moments. I enjoy mother nature, the ocean, birds, the trees, gardening, all kinds of music, and artistic endeavors. I am compassionate, understanding, silly, strong, dislike injustice, educated (B.A.). into healing life's scrapes and bruises, into spirituality (nature-based, pro-female), into just being, having a balanced life and smelling the roses over and over again, and kicking a little ass every now and then. I have a sense of humor, especially when life gets bumpy. I'll write everyone back and look forward to meeting each of you big beautiful babes.

WELL YEAH, I WANT TO GET MARRIED...

I want the whole thing, long white dress, bridal registry, parents walking me down the aisle, a big party with dancing, and happily ever after. I also want a non-monogamous relationship, children, and a house in the country (not to mention world peace in MY lifetime, and a pair of thigh-high black leather boots). If you are looking for the high-femme girl of your dreams, why not take this gorgeous fat Bay Area babe out for a joyride (physical or virtual)? We may not suit, but we'll have fun finding out! (And who knows, there may be an aisle in our future...!)
